

Six Strategies to Rebuild Your Brand After a Disaster

Presented by Lisa Kanda

How Can You Help Customers Find You?

What is a brand?

"... the set of expectations, memories, stories and relationships that, taken together, account for a consumer's decision to choose one product or service over another. If the consumer (whether it's a business, a buyer, a voter or a donor) doesn't pay a premium, make a selection or spread the word, then no brand value exists for that consumer."

Seth Godin

The 70/20/10 Rule

- ◆ 70% of content needs to add value and be resourceful. Give a tip, advice, how-to's, link to an interesting article, talk about local news or events, ask questions; engage with your community!
- ◆ 20% of content needs to share other people's content. By sharing others' promotions, business pages, tips; you are helping spread their message to your audience. They will recognize this and most likely share your content with their network.
- ◆ 10% of content can be about your business— sales, new items, contests and giveaways, promotions, etc.

4

Increase your Reach

- ◆ Make connections, gain followers, and interact with influencers
- ◆ Optimize your presence - proactively increase the numbers of connections you have on social media platforms
- ◆ Build your tribe so they can help spread your message - “viral effect”
- ◆ Research and engage with influencers to maximize your reach

5

Be Generous and Engage

- ◆ No lurking – need to reciprocate
- ◆ Make time to be thoughtful and responsive to other people's content
- ◆ Engage in conversations
- ◆ Share and comment on other pages and blogs

Increase Brand Trust

- ◆ Proactively ask for testimonials and reviews
- ◆ Monitor all feedback that is posted about your brand, especially on other web sites – Yelp, Trip Advisor, Google+ Local
- ◆ Tips on how to ask for reviews
